Meet the Director Adrienne Booth

Owner/Director/Coach

Adrienne Booth enters her seventh season at the helm of the FDU Women's Lacrosse program. Under Booth, the Devils have seen their greatest success, setting school records in every area including wins. In 2006, Booth led the Devils to a 12-6 record and the Championship of the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference South Region. During the 2007 season, she guided FDU to a 10-9 mark and to the Finals of the MASCAC Tournament while also earning another berth in the ECAC South Region Tournament. In 2008 Booth led the Devils to their first NCAA berth after winning the MASCAC regular season and winning the MASCAC post season tournament. Booth was named 2008 MASCAC coach of the year. Prior to coming to FDU, Booth coached lacrosse at North Brunswick High School. She starred collegiately in both lacrosse and field hockey for Rutgers University.
